

Carolina Mayorga-Biography

Carolina Mayorga is an artist working in a broad range of media, including drawing, photography, performance art, sculpture and installation. Mayorga has been exhibiting artworks nationally and internationally for the last 15 years. She has received several awards in Colombia and the United States and is represented in both private and public collections, including the Art Museum of the Americas (DC), The National Museum of Women in the Arts (DC), the Andres Institute of Art (New Hampshire), and the Kronan Sculpture Park (Sweden). Mayorga's work has been reviewed in various publications in Colombia, Sweden, Spain and the United States including articles in the Washington Post, The Boston Globe and The Washington City Paper among others. Mayorga has been attached to the Capitol Hill neighborhood for the last decade as an artist and teacher of the Capitol Hill Arts Workshop. The artist received a BFA in Art and Fiber Arts from Universidad de los Andes, Bogotá, Colombia and a MFA in sculpture from the University of Kansas, Lawrence Kansas. She lives and works in Washington, DC. For more information visit: carolinamayorga.com