The artwork can have a title though!

Open to artists, 18 years and older, residing in the DC/VA/MD area.

Exhibit Managers: CHAL Steering Committee Co-Chairs Anne Albright & Karen Van Allen (caphillartleagueofdc@gmail.com)

Juror: Will Fleishell

Will is an engraver with the Department of Treasury and can be as precise as that exacting craft can demand-you have seen his handiwork on stamps and currency. That carries over to the incredible and increasingly rare quality of prints he does in his Capitol Hill studio with a 150-year-old printing press - itself a work of art. His engravings are, fittingly, of the Rhinelandish, or Dutch, style rather than Italian, and he loves to engrave tiny emblems and portraits of houses. His creations include book plates for Smithsonian exhibits and Oprah's personal seal and bookplates.

Will does figurative life drawing at the Capitol Hill Arts Workshop, and paints portraits and landscapes. It is all done very much in traditional styles. He loves the detail, lighting, and drama of Baroque art, yet can still reach for the contemplative stillness and dignity of earlier classical periods. Will graduated from the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts in 1983 but has been an artist since birth.
